Blairmore Boy Wins Military Medal

Interesting Letter from C. H. Roy

Blairmore, Oct. 25th, 1916.

Dear Bartlett:
Just received the Canadian mail, containing among many other things two Enterprises, for which many thanks. Gee, it sure is good reading out here, too, more so than you can realize. I hear the 102nd is in England. Well, I am glad to see that they are not taking as long as the 13th O.M.R.'s in "making the grade". It is a great joke over here, betting as to when the 13th really will get here.
Well, Bart, we have done our share on the Somme, especially our battalion, around Courcellette, and a few boys who are well known in The Pass, figured among the unfortunates. Hugh Robinson, who used to run the old Frank "wheelchair" was killed in the taking of Courcellette. He was an armorer-corporal and did not have to go in the charge, but good old Hugh didn't come out here to shirk. Jim McNeill, of Bellevue, came to us after our first time in and was wounded during his first trip. Might remark: that was some trip. Our boys went "over the wall" at 12:50 (noon), and bumped up against barbed wire and a trench-filled Prussian Guard. Well, they stepped up, but not for long. We made another charge and were stopped; but, say, you should have seen about seventy-five of us (all that were left) make their first trip on the third, and final charge. How we stayed with our guns we were too tired to understand yet. A slip in calculation was probably the reason that our artillery had not destroyed Fritz's wire or trench—quite an easy thing to happen in a big affair like the Somme battle. Corporal Hubert Pavey, of Cowley, lost his life in that mix-up. He was some boy, and did great work.

Ernest Huguet, of Blairmore, who came to our battalion lately, won the military medal for gallantry under fire. He is in the machine-gun section, and brought up ammunition through the enemy's "barage" fire, when his gun ran short. I managed to get a little special leave for my share.

I met "Red" Melroe (Barnes), of Blairmore, down on the Somme. At present we are in a quieter section of the line, staying in what is left of a cottage—one room with a big fire-place going strong—and as our "nightly medicine" (get me) has just been round, we are all feeling fairly cheerful.

Joe Kidd blew in with a draft the other day. Campbell McPherson was o.k. when we left the Somme, but had another "trip in" to do.

I see where Walter Howe is going home. He deserves it. Joe Howe is around here somewhere. I must try and find him.

I am glad to see the old town doing so well in recruiting. Also glad to see the support given us by the many contributions of the townspeople to the Red Cross, etc. The boys over here keep talking about that stuff, and also on recruiting. Well, Bart, this is a little over thirteen months for me over here. I hope it finishes soon, as I can't expect always to get away without a scratch, and as our popular song now says goes:
"I want to go home, I want to go home. The bullets they whistle, the cannons up roar,

The Ten Commandments For Active Service

1. When on guard thou shalt challenge all parties approaching thee.
2. Thou shalt not neglect any grave, nor any likeness of any shrine in Heaven above, nor any post card of the earth beneath, nor any drawing of any submarine under the sea; for I, the censor, am a jealous censor, visiting the iniquities of the offenders with three months' imprisonment, showing mercy unto thousands by letting their letters go free who keep my commandments.
3. Thou shalt not use any profane language unless under extraordinary circumstances, such as seeing thy comrade shot or getting gasoline in thy tea.
4. Remember the soldiers' week consists of seven days, six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work, and on the seventh day do all thy odd jobs.
5. Honor thy King and thy country, keep thy rifle well oiled and shot straight, that thy days may be long in the land which thy friend the enemy giveth thee.
6. Thou shalt not kill—time.
7. Thou shalt not adulterate thy mention by using it for a shaving mug.
8. Thou shalt not steal thy comrade's kit.
9. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy comrade, but observed the exact silence of his outcries and incoherence.
10. Thou shalt not covet thy sergeant's post, nor the corporal's, nor the staff sergeant-major's, but do thy duty, and, by dint of perseverance, rise to the high position of field marshal.

Secretary Lord's Day Alliance Explains

Red Deer, Alta., Nov. 11th, 1916.

To the Editor:
Sir—In view of the recent statement in the daily press that Sunday threshing will be permitted in Alberta and Saskatchewan this season, I wish to make a statement of the facts so far as the Province of Alberta is concerned.
On October 21st the Commissioner of Immigration, Mr. J. Bruce Walker, wired the Attorney General stating that the Honorable the Minister of the Interior had asked the Mounted Police to take no action against individuals for threshing on Sunday. "Because of the serious situation in Saskatchewan and Alberta from delayed threshing operations," and asking the Attorney General to state his attitude to the matter so that a statement might be issued to the press, "under the circumstances threshing operations may be conducted without reasonable fear of prosecution."
The Deputy Attorney General wired as follows in reply: "Have advised that no reply will be granted on complaint of circumstances fully investigated in each case."

Without discussing the alleged action of the Minister of the Interior looking to the suspension of the Lord's Day Act, which is a part of the Criminal Code, I would make the following comments upon the situation.

1. When the Parliament of Canada was considering the Act, it was suggested that a clause be introduced to allow Sunday harvesting in inclement weather. This proposal was opposed by the western members, led by the Hon. Thomas Greenway, to a man, because, they said, it would result in an open Sunday in the western harvest fields. It was then considered on its merits whether it came under the exceptions relating to works of necessity and mercy. The Act thus fully provides for all cases of necessity.
2. The policy of the Attorney General of Alberta in the past is indicated by the telegram above, namely, to carefully investigate all cases before taking action; and this policy will not be changed this season. With this policy the Lord's Day Alliance fully concurs. Sunday threshing will still be liable to action under the Act unless they can establish that there was a necessity. The burden of proof rests upon the offender.
3. The Alliance has always shown a willingness to hear the farmer's side of the question and has taken great pains to try to determine to what extent harvesting and threshing on Sunday are "necessary." We find that a very large number of the farmers of Alberta rarely find Sunday work necessary, and that such work is usually confined to newcomers in the country. I shall be glad to have letters from farmers upon the question giving their views as to Sunday work during the harvest season, and will advise the Attorney General accordingly. Yours sincerely
CHAS. H. HUSTES,
Secretary Lord's Day Alliance.

Blairmore Social Club

Each character sketch, and every other special paper, is to be limited to FIVE minutes.

The Password

There is a good anecdote of an Irishman giving the password at the battle of Fontenoy, at the time the great Saxe was marshaled. "The password is Saxe, now, don't forget it," said the colonel.
"Saxe, faith, I won't. Wasn't my father a miller!"
"Who goes there?" cried the sentry after he had arrived at the pass.
The Irishman looked as confidential as possible and whispered in a soft hoarse voice: "Bugs, yer honor."

James Haddad made a business trip to Calgary this week.

J. N. Rowell, one time of Passburg, was here this week on business.

Mrs. A. May and children, who have been spending some time with friends at Foremost, returned home this week.

Rev. A. J. Law left on Thursday to attend the Methodist district fall meeting, as representative of The Pass churches.

The cold weather of the past week has made a pretty good sheet of ice on the lake at Camellia's, and many skaters were out on Sunday.

Mrs. John Mills, of Yorkshire, England, arrived in Bellevue on Monday to visit her mother Mrs. William Goodwin. She intends staying some time.

One of Bellevue's prominent citizens, in the person of "Bob" Evans, was married on Thursday of last week at Coleman, to Miss Mary Jones, of Wales. The happy couple start housekeeping with the best wishes of their many friends. It's the "little things in life that count, Bob!"

Private Charlie Burrows, junior, has the honor of being the first returned veteran to Bellevue. Pte. Burrows enlisted in the 13th O.M.R., at Pincher Creek, but transferred to the 1st C.M.R. and went to the trenches some time before the 13th left Canada. He spent some eight and a half months in the trenches, and got wounded some time early in June in the battle of Ypres, and was in the hospital somewhere in France for some time before being sent over to England where he remained a considerable time in a convalescent home before being sent across to Canada. After spending a few days with his mother here, he will report to the military authorities at Calgary.

In Blairmore fresh eggs are fifty to sixty cents a dozen, butter about fifty cents a pound, and old maida at a premium.

In eighteen months the employees of the Trail smelter have given over $53,000 to the Red Cross and Patriotic Fund.

The person operating the mine shall furnish the Agent with sworn returns, accounting for the quantity of merchantable coal mined and sold, and the royalty thereon. If the coal mine is not being operated, such returns shall be furnished at least once a year, unless by the 1st day of January, 1916.

For full information application should be made to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, or to any Agent or Sub-Agent of the Dominion Lands, W. W. COBB, Deputy Minister of the Department of the Interior, and no application of this kind will be received for sale.

Local and General

Saturday is pay-day at The Pass mines.

The process at Coleman evidently need more power.

A special meeting of the local I.O.O.F. is to be held tonight.

Some girls flirt with homey men merely from force of habit.

For the report of the U.S. elections, see the next issue of the Coleman Bulletin.

The earliest way to flatter a girl is to congratulate her on her prospective engagement.

Just because a fellow is in the swim, it doesn't follow that he must drink like a fish.

Nothing longer has a "Spectator," and Volume I, No. 1, of the Muced News has appeared instead.

There is no use trying to evade the question of "women's rights." Better give them all they ask and a little more.

During a late hour in a local parlor one night this week, a young lady began to accuse her would-be suitor of being a knucker. He, excitedly, turned to her and asked: "Do you really think I'm a peevish?" After gathering up consciousness she replied: "Well, well—I have reason to think so, haven't I?"

Prairie branches of the Patriotic Fund are considering how to collect subscriptions from Alberta land owners who are residing in the U.S.A. The question is becoming rather a vexed one, as large tracts of our prairie lands are owned by citizens of the U.S.A., who are deriving big interest on their investment, but who are not coming through to support any local benevolent enterprise.

The popular "Peg of My Heart," which was so well received in Blairmore in September, will appear at the Coleman opera house on Saturday night of next week, and we take this opportunity of bespeaking for this capable company a crowded house and pleased audience at Coleman. No doubt a large number of local folks, who saw the play put on in Blairmore, will make a point to be present again on this occasion.

The miners of District 13 are demanding an increase of 25 per cent. to meet the corresponding increase in cost of living, and the operators are given till the 25th to come through. Meanwhile both the operators and union representatives are holding sessions at Calgary, but so far have not entered into a joint conference. The miners claim to be justified in their demand, and are willing that their grievance should be submitted to a joint commission.

The new Methodist hall at Frank is to be formally opened on Sunday, services both morning and evening to be addressed by Major the Rev. Dr. Kerby, principal of Mount Royal College at Calgary and chief recruiting officer for the province of Alberta. Dr. Kerby is one of the foremost orators of Western Canada, and everyone should endeavor to hear him on this occasion. On Monday evening supper will be served by the ladies in the basement of the hall from 6 to 8 o'clock. At 8 o'clock a mass meeting of adults will be addressed in the hall by Major Kerby, who will speak on the theme "The War and the New Day," which is one of the major's most popular lectures and well worth hearing.

Suggestions on Mine Rescue Work

Introduced by the Western Canadian Coal Mine Officials Association, Blairmore, Alberta.

In addition to the Rescue Appliances on the Mine Rescue Crew, each mine should have at least one complete set of breathing apparatus and accessories (one set to consist of five apparatus) viz. one reviving apparatus as recommended by the Chief Inspector of Mines, a suitable number of electric hand lamps, two or more small birds for testing for carbon monoxide and a properly constructed stretcher with adjustable straps.

A central rescue station should be established with at least six trained men in constant attendance at the station and such station should be in telephone communication with all of the mines that it is intended to serve.

The men residing at the station should be men selected on account of their coolness, powers of endurance, general ability for the work and should be medically certified to be fit for the work and be the holder of a certificate of proficiency in first aid.

In addition to the trained men at the station there should be one or more teams selected from the employees at each mine (a team to consist of five men). The number of teams to be governed by the number of men employed.

The members of the team should be men selected on account of their coolness, powers of endurance and should be medically certified to be fit for the work and be the holder of a certificate of proficiency in first aid and as far as is reasonably practicable the men should be selected from each shift.

Arrangements should be made for the summoning of such persons immediately their services are required.

Each member of any Rescue Team should be medically examined at least once in every six months.

The team should be thoroughly trained in the use of breathing apparatus, rescue work and in First Aid Work. In the reading of mine plans and all teams while working or in actual work should be connected by a life line.

There should be constantly kept at the Rescue Station and at the mines, tracings of the workings of the mine up to date not more than three months previously, showing the ventilation, all principal doors, stoppings, air-passages, regulators and telephone stations, the intake air to be distinguished from the return air by a different color. These tracings should be in suitable form for use by the teams.

A uniform system of training and signalling should be established for use in the province.

All members of a team should wear a badge of proficiency.

All members of any rescue team should be remunerated for the time employed in training and should be fully compensated for any injury received while training or in actual rescue work. Such remuneration and compensation to be paid by the government.

A suitable person employed by the government should be placed at each mine to have complete charge of all rescue appliances and to act as an instructor in training the men in rescue work and first aid.

We also recommend that a number of half-hour apparatus be installed for use.

In order to bring the needs of the Patriotic Fund home to every individual in Southern Alberta, the newspapers generally, and including The Enterprise, are co-operating with the Central Publicity committee and will publish during the next few weeks a series of striking cartoons which have been prepared especially for use in Southern Alberta. The first of such cartoons appears in this issue. Our readers will be interested to know that Alberta initiative did not find it necessary to fall back on Eastern Canada or any other province for its cartoon service. The drawings were made by Alberta artists; the plates were made by Alberta engravers, and the whole service is under the direction of Alberta advertising men. It will also interest the public to know that the services of the artists who made the drawings and the steady persons who cast the plates, as well as that of the committee in charge, have all been given absolutely free as a donation to the Patriotic Fund cause.
